

Macarena Pérez is a Business Engineer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica (Honors Scholarship 199 and PWC 2000).

Since 2020 she is a partner of Econsult and since 2021, she is Vice President of the Finance Committee of the Ministry of Finance of the Government of Chile. She was chosen among the 100 leading women of El Mercurio in 2021, in the Executive category.

Currently, she is also a member of the board of Fundación la Fuente, a member of the Icare Finance Circle, and participates as a mentor in Women in Finance (WIF), a pro bono organization, which is dedicated to mentoring students and professionals in the world of finance.

She has been a member of the board of Bbosch, Empresas Volcán S.A., Fundación Mujer Impacta, a member of the development council of the Finnis Terrae University and a director at Credicorp Capital.

Previously (2017-2020), she worked as a private markets manager in a family office, being responsible for the portfolio of private equity, alternatives, and real estate assets in Chile and abroad.

Prior to that, Macarena spent more than 14 years at IM Trust-Credicorp, where she held various roles in investment banking, high net worth investment management and mutual funds and was general manager of her AGF. From 2009 to 2017 she served as Director of Finance, being also a partner of the same company and director of the Credicorp Foundation, a foundation dedicated to pro-bono advising other foundations, of which she participated in its creation.

She has been a professor of Accounting and Finance at PUC and UAndes.