

Trading Update Q2 2025

Consolidated harvest volumes in Q2 2025 for Salmones Camanchaca were 11,426 MT:

- Atlantic: 11,426 MT with an average weight of 5.01 Kg and an ex-cage cost of USD 4.37/Kg WFE.
- Coho: No harvests.

Sales during Q2 2025 were approximately 9,400 MT of Atlantic and 150 MT of Coho. The inventory as of 30 June was approximately 5,200 MT of Atlantic and 60 MT of Coho.

Atlantic harvest estimate for 2025 is between 55,000 - 60,000 MT and for Coho's ~3,000 MT.

All harvest and sales volumes are provided in whole fish equivalent (WFE).

The full Q2 2025 report will be released on 13 August 2025.

For more information, please contact:

Álvaro Marín, Head of IR, alvaro.marin@camanchaca.cl

Fernanda Peñailillo, IR, fernanda.penailillo@camanchaca.cl

Investor Relations, inversionistas@camanchaca.cl

About Salmones Camanchaca

Salmones Camanchaca S.A. is a vertically integrated salmon producer engaged in breeding, egg production, recirculating hatcheries for Atlantic salmon and pass-through or lake hatcheries for Pacific salmon (Coho) salmon and Trout, fish farming sites in estuary, fjord and oceanic waters used mainly for Atlantic salmon, primary and secondary processing, and marketing and sales of Atlantic and Coho salmon through four sales offices in its main markets.

Salmones Camanchaca has 1,800 employees on average, 60% of whom work in its secondary processing and value-added plant. Markets for Atlantic salmon are led by the USA and Mexico.